

SOME INTERESTING COMING ATTRACTIONS

CLAY TO TABLEWARE WORKSHOP

Betty Johnson, resident pottery instructor with SICA will be offering a “clay to tableware” workshop in March. A unique experience for those who want to learn how to create pottery pieces, Betty will teach participants how to wedge clay, throw pieces on the wheel, hand build, glaze and explain basics about electric kilns. Classes will be held from 3 to 5 p.m. On Sundays, March 3, 10, 17 & 24. Class size is limited to 5, so reserve today.

Students will have the opportunity to attend weekly classes to make two to four tableware sets featuring a 9” plate, bowl and tumbler. The students will get their choice of two Saturdays in March to spend extra time on the wheel, perfecting techniques or embellishing pieces. Class tuition of $200 and includes all instruction and supplies. SICA members receive a 20% class discount.

Pre-registration and pre-payment is required for the workshop by February 28. Email sikatreasurer@frontier.com or call 812-522-2278 and leave a message with name and phone number. Send payment to SICA, 2001 N. Ewing Street, Seymour, or send a message to SICA on Facebook.

4H SEWING EXHIBIT AT SICA

Visit SICA this month to check out the 4H clothing & sewing for fun projects on display.

There will be an opening reception from 3 to 5 p.m. Sunday, Feb. 10, where attendees can interact with 4H members who have created the many displays. Everyone is invited to attend.

HAPPY TRAILS QUILT TOP CLASS

Long time quilter Cindy Claycamp will offer a quilting class from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. Saturday, February 16, an all-day class making a quilt top called “Happy Trails” will be offered at the Southern Indiana Center for the Arts.
